ROSEDALE, CUNNINGHAM STATION

Col. and Mrs. John Cunningham, and Mrs. Laura Estill Francis, entertained at tea, on Thursday Evening, at their colonial, ancestral home at Rosedale, in honor of their brother from Washington, Rev. Wm. K. Cunningham, a brilliant lawyer, a gifted and successful business man, large land-owner, and interested in banking. He was anxious to enjoy the dear scenes of his childhood, in "The Old Kentucky Home," by moon-light and a royal feast was prepared for a highly interested party of friends. The house was decorated and perfumed with white lilies and ferns. Among the guests was much beloved brother and sister Willis of the Christian Church. Mr. Earnest Bean of Winchester, Ky., and Mr. Mat Bean, the Secretary of "The Great Tom Bean Estate in Texas, which is at last "A Go!

A FIRM ANSWER.

The Rev. Mr. Freuder, of Philadelphia, tells this story of himself:

Some time ago he was invited to dine at the house of a friend, whose wife went into her kitchen to give some final orders. Incidentally, she added to the servant, "we are to have a Jewish rabbi for dinner today."

For a moment the maid surveyed her mistress in grim silence. Then she spoke with decision, "all I have to say is," she announced, "if you have a Jewish rabbi for dinner, you'll cook it yourself."

THE LIMIT OF LIFE.

The most eminent medical scientists are numerous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade can not be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

Cures baby's croup, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mama's sore throat, grandma's lameness—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the great household remedy.
